

ICFAI VC meets Governor, discuss NEP 2020 initiatives

SE Report

GANGTOK, May 11: The ICFAI University vice chancellor Dr. Jagannath Patnaik met with the Governor Lakshman Prasad Acharya here at Raj Bhawan.

The vice chancellor discussed the university's initiatives aligned with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. The meeting focused on the university's efforts towards skill enhancement, industry-linked internships, and the promotion of Sikkim's rich historical heritage, informs a press release.

During the meeting, Dr. Jagannath Patnaik emphasized that The ICFAI University, Sikkim is committed to implementing the NEP 2020 guidelines effectively. The university has already incorporated comprehensive curriculum designs that prioritize skill development and foster strong industry connections through internship programs. These initiatives are aimed at equipping students with practical knowledge and preparing them for successful careers in their chosen fields.

The Governor expressed his appreciation for the steps taken by The ICFAI University in aligning with the NEP 2020. He acknowledged the importance of skill enhancement and industry exposure for students, highlighting the need to bridge the gap between academia and the professional world. Hon'ble Governor applauded the University for its Proactive Approach in this regard and encouraged the university to continue its efforts in promoting holistic education.

Furthermore, he emphasized the significance of historical research in Sikkim, given its status as a popular tourist destination. He encouraged The ICFAI University to conduct research on the historical aspects of Sikkim, enabling visitors to gain a comprehensive understanding of the state's cultural heritage and natural beauty. By promoting a broader awareness of Sikkim's attractions beyond popular sites like Nathula and MG Road, the university can contribute to presenting Sikkim as a "heaven on earth" to the tourists.

Dr. Patnaik expressed gratitude to the Governor for his valuable insights and assured him that University would take his advice seriously. The university will work towards incorporating research on Sikkim's historical heritage into its academic programs and promote a deeper understanding of the state's rich cultural diversity among students and visitors alike, the release mentions.

ICFAI-Sikkim VC calls on Governor

SUMMIT REPORT

GANGTOK, 11 MAY:

Vice Chancellor, ICFAI University-Sikkim, Dr Jagannath Patnaik called on Governor Lakshman Prasad Acharya and discussed the university's initiatives aligned with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, a press release informs.

The meeting took place at Raj Bhavan and focused on the university's efforts towards skill enhancement, industry-linked internships, and the promotion of Sikkim's rich historical heritage, the release adds.

During the meeting, Dr Patnaik emphasized that The ICFAI University, Sikkim is committed to implementing NEP 2020 guidelines effectively. The university has already incorporated comprehensive curriculum designs that prioritize skill development and foster strong industry connections through internship programs. These initiatives are aimed at equipping students with practical knowledge and preparing them for successful careers in their chosen fields.

The Governor appreciated the steps taken by The ICFAI University in aligning with the NEP 2020. He acknowledged the importance of skill enhancement and industry exposure for students, highlighting the need to bridge the gap between academia and the professional world. The Governor applauded the University for its proactive approach in this regard and encouraged the university to continue its efforts in promoting holistic education, the release adds.

Furthermore, he also emphasized the significance of historical research in Sikkim, given its status as a popular tourist destination. He encouraged The ICFAI University to conduct research on the historical aspects of Sikkim, enabling visitors to gain a comprehensive understanding of the state's cultural heritage and natural beauty. By promoting a broader awareness of Sikkim's attractions beyond popular sites like Nathula and MG Road, the university can contribute to presenting Sikkim as a "heaven on earth" to the tourists.

Dr Patnaik expressed gratitude to Hon'ble Governor for his valuable insights and assured him that University would take his advice seriously. The university will work towards incorporating research on Sikkim's historical heritage into its academic programs and promote a deeper understanding of the state's rich cultural diversity among students and visitors alike.