

ICFAI chancellor calls on CM, discusses partnership for skill development

GANGTOK, 04 AUG [IPR]: The Chancellor of ICFAI University, Prof ORS Rao, and Vice-Chancellor, Dr Jagannath Patnaik called on Chief Minister Prem Singh Tamang at his official residence in Mintokgang today.

During the meeting, they discussed on various agendas including approval for Public-Private Partnership (PPP) with the State Skill Development Department to develop a state-of-the-art center in the aviation sector such as Cabin Crew & ground staff training in the state, subsidy for free education to local students in professional programs, pending land registration, specialized professional development programs for working professionals, equipping them with the digital transformation in various sectors.

Furthermore, the Chancellor informed about the convocation 2023 scheduled to be held in October.